

Drama Binder!

- Bring your Drama Binder to every class. It may be checked at any time, so keep it current, and bring it every day.
- Your Drama Binder contains all of the written work for Drama, and so it is worth 20% of your final grade.
- Your Drama Binder must be dedicated only to Drama, i.e., no work from other classes!
- The best Drama Binder is 1". Look for one that is durable, with hard covers.
- You will need 5 divider tabs, which should be labeled in the following order: handouts; notes; scripts; analysis; critiques.
- Tape this page to the inside front cover.
- The front of the Drama Binder must have your full name and the class title clearly written. Feel free to be creative and decorate the cover.
- For full credit, Drama Journals must be N.I.C.E.: NEAT (legible, clean, orderly); Intelligent (integrating course curriculum); Complete (no missing elements); Effortful (entries are well-thought out, and of a quality demanded by an academic subject).
